

CSR PROJECTS FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR 2020-21

Sr. No.	Programme	Areas specified under Schedule VII	Location of Project	Brief Synopsis
1.	United Way of Bengaluru	Promoting health care including preventive health care'' and sanitation Disaster management, including relief	Bengaluru	United Way of Bengaluru is registered (FCRA, 12A and 80G compliant) not-for-profit organization which works with communities to take local action for global impact.
2.	Udbhav School	Promoting education	Hyderabad	Udbhav School by IIMAAA charitable trust was started with a belief that all children should have the chance to shape their future destiny that all children should have the same opportunity and that education holds the key. Udbhav represents the commitment to make a long-term impact on society by enabling young children from economically disadvantaged backgrounds to realize their potential
3.	United Way Delhi	(i) Eradicating hunger, poverty and malnutrition, [promoting health care including preventive health] and sanitation (ii) Promoting education, including special education and employment enhancing vocation skills especially among children, women, elderly and the differently abled and livelihood enhancement projects (iii) Promoting gender equality, empowering women	Delhi and NCR	The program intends to support families which are in the most vulnerable situations today due to the year-long pandemic and support them to sustain their families for a few months until they get back on their feet with immediate support under different essential domains including health, education, livelihood, food and shelter

		(xii) Disaster management, including relief, rehabilitation and reconstruction activities.
4.	Foundation of Arts for Social Change in India	Promoting education to under privileged children	Delhi	Foundation Of Arts for Social Change in India is a Private limited Company incorporated on 15 February 2017. It is classified as non-govt company and is registered at Registrar of Companies, Delhi. This Foundation of Arts for Social Change in India NGO charity is working on Key Issues of Art & Culture, Education & Literacy
5.	Oscar Foundation	(ii) Promoting education, including special education and employment enhancing vocation skills especially among children, women, elderly, and the differently-abled and livelihood enhancement projects. (vii) Training to promote rural sports, nationally recognized sports, paralympic sports and Olympic sports (xii) Disaster management, including relief, rehabilitation, and reconstruction activities.	Mumbai	OSCAR Foundation is a football for development non-profit dedicated to empowering children and youth in low-income communities in India. OSCAR uses football as a tool to deliver education and life skills sessions enabling children and youth to become role models in their community. Over the last 11 years, more than 12000+ children and youth in India have joined OSCAR's Football, Education, and Young Leaders' Programme. OSCAR Foundation is headquartered in Mumbai and has reached out to children in Mumbai, Delhi, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, and Jharkhand.
6.	MSWC Asha Sadan	Promoting health care including preventive health care and sanitation	Mumbai	Asha Sadan – literally, House of Hope – is housed in old Umerkhadi jail in the heart of Mumbai with its high walls, and declares its intention to keep the cruel world out. It has done so for over 90 years for its young wards, marginalized citizens of a society that has no room or resources to protect or nurture them. Asha Sadan houses children in the age group of 0-6 years, and young girls from 14-20 years.

7.	Cherish Home India Delhi Unit	Promoting health care to under privileged group of people	Delhi	Cheshire Home India – Delhi Unit was established in 1957 and since then it has been a part of many disabled people’s lives. They provide shelter to the physically handicapped, mentally ill, autistic and cerebral palsy and multi-disabilities patients. Currently they Offers a learning centre for over 70 residential and non-residential children
8.	PM CARES Fund	Prime Minister’s Citizen Assistance and Relief in Emergency Situations Fund	NA	The Prime Minister's Citizen Assistance and Relief in Emergency Situations Fund was created on 27 March 2020, following the COVID-19 pandemic in India.